

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE curtain for "Bibi" at the Academy of Music this evening will go up promptly at 8 o'clock, when a series of tableaux, in which a number of the handsomest society women of Richmond will take part, will be given under the direction of Miss Caroline Coffman.

The picture to be represented are taken from works of art, and from portraits by celebrated painters, the costumes being accurately copied. Mrs. Swanson will make a charming Duchess of Devonshire; Miss Gainsborough portrait of Mrs. Drummond Smith; Miss Winkler will appear as the Lady with the Fan; Miss Barton as Lucy of Leicester; and Miss Nora as Lucy of Leicester. The celebrated beauty, the Countess of Kotelka, will be reproduced by Mrs. George Ball Hatching; Mrs. John Skelton Williams will represent the Empress Josephine; Mrs. L. N. Vaughn will appear as Madame Recamier; Miss Ella Buck as the Lady with the Muff; and Mrs. Sidney Buford as Madame de Brun.

A final and most important full rehearsal will be held at the Academy this morning at 10 o'clock.

Card Tournament at Woman's Club

The February card tournament will be played at the Woman's Club this evening at 8:15 o'clock, compass whist being the game. Members are entitled to invite gentlemen partners or ladies holding "club" cards, but no other ladies outside of the club membership. Those intending to play must notify the house committee by 10 A. M. today.

Buffet Luncheon.

Mrs. John Mercer Brockenhough, of 612 West Franklin Street, entertained at 2 o'clock yesterday at a buffet luncheon in her home, which was artistically decorated. The color plan in the dining room was yellow and green. The centerpiece was a large oblong bouquet of jonquils, and the mantel was banked in green, with pockets of jonquils.

The library was also in yellow, and the parlors were decorated in pink. Pockets of La France roses showing up prettily against the background of the room, and the mantel was banked in green, with pockets of jonquils.

Members of the Deep Run Hunt are looking forward with much pleasure to their run with the Riverside Hunt at Petersburg, to-morrow afternoon.

The club will be well represented at the meet to be held in Harvel's Field, many Richmonders going over to enjoy the Riverside's hospitality. Among others will be Miss Warfield Crenshaw, Rector H. Gray, H. C. McChesney, J. W. Graves, B. H. Ellington, E. D. Harris, Archer Anderson, Mr. Gathright and Joseph Anderson.

After the run a reception will be held in the clubhouse, and the hostesses of the evening will be Mrs. R. D. Crowley, Mrs. W. C. McChesney, Leroy Roper, Mr. H. G. Leigh, Mrs. Harvey Roper, Mrs. M. C. Jackson, Mrs. E. L. McGinn, Mrs. George Cameron, Mrs. E. H. Patterson, Mrs. W. A. Briggs, Mrs. C. F. Lassiter, Mrs. Williams, Misses McLawry, Miss Bessie Myers, Miss Mary T. Patterson, Miss Grizzelle Mullen, Miss Mary Roper, Miss Nan Davis, Miss Mary Booth, Miss Margaret Gill and Miss Sarah Hamilton.

To Welcome the Fleet.

Mrs. Edward D. Washburn, of Fredericksburg, with Miss Caroline Hunter and Miss Maria Tucker, daughter of Bishop Beverly Tucker, will leave Richmond to-morrow for Norfolk to witness the incoming of the fleet. Mrs. Washburn's son, Edward D. Washburn, who has been with the Culgoa, a supply ship, accompanying the fleet, reached Hampton Roads to-day.

Mitchell-McDowell.

An engagement of interest in Richmond, where the bride and her parents formerly lived, is that of Miss Aylene McDowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. McDowell, of Norfolk, to Russell Edwards Mitchell, of Norfolk.

The wedding will take place on Wednesday afternoon, March 3, at 5 o'clock.

Richmond Washington Tea.

The ladies of the Church of the Covenant will serve an oyster supper to-night from 6 to 10 o'clock in the chapel of the church. A most enjoyable time is promised to all who attend, and a musical program will be rendered. Miss Margaret Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Call, Miss Allen Thompson and Mr. Nunnally will sing, and Miss Louise Kelly will recite.

For Miss Salzman.

On Monday Mrs. Joseph Edward Taylor gave a luncheon in her country home, Woodland, near Danville, in honor of Miss Salzman, whose engagement was recently announced to William Yarborough Minor, of this city. A game of progressive hearts preceded the luncheon, and each guest was presented with an engagement ring as a favor, and the guest of honor, an April bride-to-be, received a wedding ring. The house was decorated in red carnations, smilax and ferns, and above the table in the dining-room roses of red satin ribbon were suspended, caught at each corner of the table with a large bunch of red carnations and a bow of the ribbon, while the centerpiece was a large cut glass vase of the crimson flowers. The score cards, ice, cakes and all other accessories were heart-shaped, in honor of St. Valentine's Day.

Among the guests were Misses Marion Noel, Katherine Rison, Mary Hunter, Bethel, Robinson, Jones, of Richmond; Mosley, Puryear, Farham, Allen, Phifer, Bendall, Patton, Vass, Graham, Wiseman, Edwards, Conrad and Salzman.

On Saturday last Mrs. Taylor entertained her married friends in Danville at a Valentine's party. As Miss Grace Lee Gillett, of Richmond, Mrs. Taylor will be pleasantly remembered here.

For Richmond Girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Nelms gave a delightful party last week in their home in Roanoke in honor of their daughter, Miss Nellie Nelms, who is visiting in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., February 18.

At Trinity Episcopal Church.

At 7:30 o'clock this evening a beautiful marriage, and one of great general interest, was solemnized, when Miss Elizabeth Marchon Hunkamp became the bride of Dr. William McDonald, Jr., of Providence, R. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H.

H. Harbour, rector of the church. The bride was given away by her brother, William H. Hunkamp. She wore a costume of white tulle, satin, and trimmed with pearls and crystals, with rose point veil, and carried a bouquet of gardenias and white hyacinths. The matron of honor was Mrs. Charles H. Hunkamp, of "Boacabel," who was escorted in American Beauty satin, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Gilbert Oliver, of Albany, N. Y., was the best man, and the ushers were Harry Goss and John Gammon, of Providence, R. I.; Donald McDonald and Frederick McDonald, of Albany, N. Y.; George William Warren, of Richmond, and George Hunkamp, Warren, of Philadelphia. A large number of distinguished guests from many distant points were present at the wedding and at the reception which followed at the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ford.

Dr. and Mrs. McDonald left for an extended bridal trip, after which they will reside at Providence, R. I.

PERJURY CHARGED AGAINST WITNESS

Oscar Martin Jailed for Alleged False Swearing in Ernest Wade Hearing.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., February 18.—Oscar Martin, who was one of the Commonwealth's witnesses in the recent preliminary hearing of Ernest Wade, the alleged slayer of Isaac Higginbotham, on the charge of murder, was arrested to-day on a warrant charging him with perjury. The arrest was made by Officer Ford, and Martin was locked up. Later an application was made before Mayor Smith, in the Police Court, for bail, but the application was refused.

It is charged that Martin made statements on the witness stand under oath which are not borne out by the facts. He testified that he was calling in Madison Heights the evening of the murder, and that he came down the road leading to the bridge just in the rear of Alfred Fitzgerald, the witness who testified that he saw Wade standing under an upright piece a few moments before the shooting took place. He said he went across the bridge to Higginbotham's saloon and got a bottle of liquor, following Fitzgerald across the bridge.

The evidence is said to show that the shooting occurred about 10:10 o'clock, and that Fitzgerald had not crossed the Norfolk and Western tracks before he heard the shots, a condition, if Martin was behind Fitzgerald, which would make it impossible for him to have gotten liquor, as the saloon would have been closed from ten to fifteen minutes.

The case is being worked up by the police, and it is not at all unlikely that something of a sensation will be brought out at the hearing.

Says It Was Accidental.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

HANOVER, VA., February 18.—Willie Lewis, the negro boy charged with shooting another negro, Courtney Wingfield, near Tazewell, Va., Sunday, was brought to Petersburg to-morrow afternoon by Mr. Jones. The boy states that the shooting was accidental.

Colonel Cooper Used 'Phone.

"Did you hear Colonel Cooper use the telephone?"

"I did, several times, but only once did I hear what he said."

"To whom was he talking?"

"To his daughter, Mrs. Burch. He said: 'Daughter, it is all over. Robin has killed Carmack. Robin is shot.'"

"Did you hear him say that?"

"Yes, I did. I heard him say that. He was talking to his daughter, Mrs. Burch. He said: 'Daughter, it is all over. Robin has killed Carmack. Robin is shot.'"
